

Mission Grant Fact Sheet

Y. Concordia Seminary, St. Louis – Supporting International Students

Submitter: Concordia Seminary, St. Louis

Grant amount: $7,000.00

Description: Concordia Seminary, St. Louis is seeking a mission grant to help cover the educational expenses of its numerous international students. These students, who are of exceptional caliber, will pursue advanced theological degrees and then will go on to serve as seminary professors and church leaders in their respective home countries. Their vital role is pivotal in preparing more pastors and church leaders to undertake the Great Commission.

However, given that many of these students hail from developing nations and have limited resources, their ability to attend Concordia Seminary is dependent upon the generous support extended by friends and supporters from within the U.S.

Prayer: Omnipotent God, source of boundless grace and mercy, Your divine will is for all humanity to come to salvation and knowledge of the truth. We beseech You to guide Your church in the tireless proclamation of the Gospel of Your Son, Jesus Christ, to those across the globe who have yet to hear it. We lift before Your throne of mercy the international students of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, as they undergo preparation to serve as future leaders and pastors in their homelands. Grant them unwavering faith and steadfast dedication to their studies.

Safeguard their loved ones in their absence. Infuse them with anticipation and joy as they anticipate returning home to fulfill their calling among Your faithful, boldly proclaiming Your Word and nurturing Your people. In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord, we pray. Amen.
