

Meet the LWML Mid-South District Committee on Young Women

Mackenzie Drozd is new to the LWML and attended her first convention as a Young Woman Representative at the Mid-South District 28th Biennial Convention in Memphis, TN. Mackenzie serves as a secretary at her home church in Cabot, AR and enjoys helping with event planning. She is a creative person with a bachelor's degree in fine art with an emphasis on graphic design. When she is not busy with a project, she enjoys gardening, baking and sewing costumes.

Tabitha Ochoa has been a part of LWML for 3 years, going on 4. She lives in Stuttgart, Arkansas, and has been a part of St. John Lutheran Church for 3 years. She is the mother of 3 beautiful children. They are Alejandro (age 11), Ana (age 9), and Cruz (age 6). She will have been married to her wonderful husband, Jose Ochoa, for 13 years on December 11, 2024.

Haley Robertson is 19 and is currently attending Arkansas Tech University majoring in early childhood education. She attends St. John's Lutheran church in Russellville, AR where she helps teach a mommy and me Sunday school class. She is also a member of the church Youth Group Committee and worked at church camp last summer at Petit Jean Mountain.
